

Weekend Classes

Responsibility

The participant is aware that taking a weekend class is completely at his or her own risk. The participant consequently releases Espace VERRE, its representatives, employees or any people working for them, of any liability claims following all past, present or future activities offered by Espace VERRE.

Registration Conditions

The participant's class registration is confirmed when the reception of a full payment, in cash, cheque, debit or credit card, along with the completed registration form are received. The payment is processed the same week that the class is confirmed.

A minimum of 6 to 8 participants is required for all classes. If the minimum of participants is not met, Espace VERRE reserves the right to cancel the class. All classes paid in advanced will be reimbursed.

The participant will be informed if the activity is cancelled at least one week in advance (the Monday before the class or as soon as possible). Another date will be scheduled, if possible.

Since the classes have a limited number of places, Espace VERRE asks that participants promptly cancel their registration. This will give Espace VERRE more time to find another participant. Cancellation should be made by phone. For all payments made in full, a reimbursement will follow promptly.

There will be no reimbursement if the participant cancels the day of class. Fees of $25 are applicable for any cheques that are returned by the bank, for insufficient funds.

Espace VERRE reserves the right to prioritize new registrations for some classes.

For security reasons, you must respect the rules and regulations specified by the instructors and assistants on the mandatory protective equipment, the dress code, as well as all technical aspect of the class.
